

SPARK!

CULTURAL PROGRAMMING
for PEOPLE WITH MEMORY LOSS

alzheimer's  association®

Colorado Chapter

SPARK! is a FREE program offered by the Alzheimer's Association for people experiencing mild memory loss, early stage Alzheimer's, or a related dementia, and their family, friends, and guests. Specially trained educators and guides engage participants in lively discussions, art-making, social engagement, and other hands-on multi-sensory activities.

Fall Events

CU Boulder Museum of Natural History

1030 Broadway, Boulder 80309

Sunday, Nov 12 1:30-3:00 p.m.

Symbiosis - Curious Connections In Nature Join James Hakala for fascinating insights into this new exhibit

Boulder Museum of Contemporary Art

1750 13th Street, Boulder 80302

Friday, Oct 6 10:00a.m. - Noon

Sinner In Gingham Paintings, objects and works on paper by Bruce Price

Friday, Nov 10 10:00a.m. - Noon

River Paintings Stephen Batura is one of the most significant contemporary painters native to Colorado

Friday, Dec 8 10:00a.m. - Noon

Lined Out Ted Larson shears scrap metal into flat planes of abraded textures and weathered hues

Boulder Open Space & Mountain Parks

Wednesday, Oct 25 10:00a.m. - Noon Flatirons Vista Trailhead

Seasonal Changes Enjoy a hike with a naturalist and learn what the animals are up to this time of year

Wednesday, Nov 29 10:00a.m. - Noon Sawhill Ponds

Welcoming the Pre-Holidays Join us for a winter outdoor experience with hot cocoa and cookies

Alzheimer's Association 245 Century Circle #105, Louisville, CO 80027

Helpline: 800-272-3900 www.alz.org/co

This program is made possible in Colorado through the generosity of Heather & Jan Robinson, in memory of Trudy Livesay and by The Daniels Fund